

Who is LVEYD? Louisville Voter Education Youth Development, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that was organized in 2008. LVEYD is an organization that makes a positive difference in the lives of children and young adults by providing positive programs through leadership, education, art appreciation, voter education and life skills.

LVEYD's Mission: Our mission is to empower youths and young adults by providing constructive programs that promotes positive values.

Executive Summary: LVEYD is dedicated to empowering youth with skills, and workable knowledge to make positive changes in his/her life. Our goals to help provide youths and parents skills for personal growth, family enhancement and interpersonal communication through:

- Voter Education - to raise the awareness of how important voting is and why. Teaching young adults how to register, when to vote, where to vote and how to vote is something that will carry over into adulthood,
- Life Skills - provide the skills that youths must possess in order to live self-sufficiently in today's world such as knowing financial skills, teamwork, communication skills, work at a job and household management skills,
- Leadership -instructing youth so they can reach leadership skills by interacting with others to learn determination, being focus, self-discipline, a good listener and teamwork.
- Parenting Skills - helping parents to regain control of his/her children, family and your life by teaching a child: to set goals, respect self and others, responsibility, value achievement, be trustworthy and maintain self-control
